

ADA'S SAILS TORN.

In a Terrific Storm Off Hilo Sunday Morning.

Forced to Lay to at Mahukona—Reports of Very Bad Weather at Hilo and Vicinity.

The schooner Ada, Burt master, arrived in port from Hilo early last night and anchored in the stream off the Oceanic wharf, afterwards hauling in alongside the Nuanu street wharf. The Ada left Hilo at about 8:30 a. m. on Sunday, Captain Burt's intention being to come direct to Honolulu for a cargo of general merchandise.

When he had got a short distance outside he was struck by a most terrific storm, which for a while was thought would send the little schooner to the bottom, but she is a seaworthy vessel and weathered the storm beautifully. Her sails were badly torn and she was forced to put in at Mahukona for repairs and to wait until a slight abatement of the storm. Here the little schooner lay for twenty-four hours, and then put out for Honolulu Monday morning.

Comparatively good weather was experienced from Mahukona to Honolulu. The Ada brought news of a terrible storm at Hilo and along the coast, which began on Saturday night before her departure. The sky remained overcast continuously and the rain came down in torrents, with the high wind adding to the fury. On Sunday morning the storm abated a bit and the Ada left, only to get caught as already related.

The Ada also brought the report that the Lehua had put into Hilo for safety from the storm, being unable to get sugar at Hakala.

COURT NOTES.

Work in the Circuit Court and Some Probate Matters.

William Hoopli, otherwise styled "Barefooted Bill," was brought up in the Circuit Court yesterday and sentenced to serve a term of two years and to pay a fine of $3.50 on each charge of burglary. Hoopli's record is bad. He was convicted October 14, 1891 of burglary and sentenced to 4 years imprisonment and $18.50 costs. This was supposed to close him in after a series of robberies, but during August and September, 1893, robberies of a similar character to those for which he was imprisoned occurred and were traced to him. He confessed to having left Oahu prison during the night time, committed the robberies and returned to his cell. For these crimes he was sentenced to another year's imprisonment. He was paroled December 25, 1895.

H. Hackfeld & Co., through their attorneys, Kinney and Ballou, have filed an objection to the discharge from bankruptcy of Kasamatsu, claiming fraudulent transfer of property as grounds for their action.

W. R. Castle, administrator of the estate of William Dean, deceased, petitioned the court for permission to sell certain real estate. Case is continued until moved on.

The habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Lucy, the Chinese girl, said to have landed here under false pretenses, is set for a hearing on August 22.

The case of Manuel Reis vs. Kahalepaka to quiet title was on trial yesterday.

Akama and Akina, administrators of the estate of C. Akana, have been cited to appear in the Circuit Court before Judge A. W. Carter and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt for ignoring an order of the Court.

A. S. Humphreys, attorney for W. Larsen in a suit brought by David Dayton, administrator of the estate of N. Perry, deceased, has filed a motion for arrest of judgment and will argue his case on Friday.

This is an action by Dayton on a note of C. L. Hopkins, Wm. Larsen and the late A. P. Peterson, wherein judgment in the sum of $896.55, with costs of $21.50, was obtained against Larsen and Hopkins. Attorney Humphreys claims an error in not bringing Peterson as a defendant or in stating to the Court that he is dead or beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.

The suit of Manuel Reis against Kahalepaka to quiet title was discontinued on motion of A. G. M. Robertson, attorney for plaintiff.

Minna Crenner, 67 years old, residing on Queen street, convicted in lower court of selling liquor without license, was acquitted in Circuit Court yesterday, three dissenting.

In the suit of Kaholwai et al vs. Limaes, attorney for defense, have made a motion for new trial.

Wm. J. Wilson, receiver of the estate of Akana, deceased, has been ordered by Judge Carter to sell certain land at Keanohu.

Hackfeld & Co. have filed an amended motion in opposition to the discharge of Kasamatsu from bankruptcy.

Ab Sam withdrew his plea of not guilty to charge of being common nuisance and plead guilty. Sentenced to six months and $3.50 costs.

In the case of Qui Po Aya vs. Hen Kwai et al for ejectment, verdict for plaintiff was rendered with damages at $100.

Olaf Sorenson, executor of the estate of Thomas Sorenson, has filed an inventory of the estate.

J. M. Camara, administrator of the estate of Quirino Fernandez, has filed an inventory showing estate to consist of a house and lot on Magazine street, valued at $3000.

The appeal of plaintiff in the equity suit of Jos. Viera vs. Guistana F. Roport, Bishop of Panopolis, has been dismissed by the Supreme Court and the cause remanded to the Circuit Court of the Fourth Circuit.

Lilla Hanata, widow of S. N. P. Hanata, has applied for letters of administration on the estate of her husband. The estate consists of real estate and is valued at $1500.

Ah Sun and Ah Cha, convicted of violating Sec. 5, Act 21 P. G. laws in the lower court, withdrew their appeal. Eight others convicted in lower court convicted with them had their cases nolle prosequi yesterday.

An ordinary opium smoking case was before Judge Carter yesterday afternoon. Argument of counsel began at half-past four. The jury returned a verdict of acquittal after a few minutes deliberation.

Captain Fitzgerald Sick.

The steamer Hawaii arrived in port at about 1:30 p. m. yesterday with no freight aboard. She brought back Capt. Fitzgerald very sick with fever which he contracted in Hilo. He was taken to the Queen's hospital immediately upon arrival. It was Capt. Fitzgerald's intention to take a trip to the States, but his illness will prevent his so doing for some little time.

Captain Weir, who went up some time ago to learn the Hilo route so as to be able to run the Hawaii, met that steamer at Kukaiau and brought her to Honolulu.

The Hawaii will go on the dry dock for repairs.

Another Marriage.

The marriage of Mrs. May Renner to Senator Hocking of Maui was solemnized in St. Andrew's Cathedral at 1 p. m. yesterday. Right Rev. Bishop Willis officiating. After the ceremony the newly married couple, together with a number of their friends, repaired to the home of Dr. George Herbert on Alakea street, where congratulations were offered. After this Mr. and Mrs. Hocking went aboard the Alameda, on which they took passage for San Francisco. They will be gone several weeks in the States.

WE MUST HAVE THE TOOLS.

Robinson Crusoe, you remember, made a big boat or canoe out of the trunk of a tree. It was a laborious and tedious job. And that was the worst of it. When he got the boat done he couldn't launch it. It was too heavy for one man to handle. If he had only had an arrangement like the capstan of a ship he might have managed. He understood how to do it, but lacked the tools. How often we find ourselves at a dead stand for that same reason. Let me give you a fresh illustration, tied up for a moment in the following letter which might first be read before we can rightly come at the point.

"In the spring of 1884," says our correspondent, "I got into a low key way, not being able to imagine what had happened to me. My strength kept ebbing away till I had scarcely the desire or ability to do anything. I felt as tired as if I had just arrived home from a long, hard journey, yet no tax more than usual of any kind had been laid upon me. My mind, too, was weary; so that I turned from things that obliged me to think, plan or consider."

"Side by side, so to speak, with all this was the failure of my appetite. Of course I continued to eat, or make an effort to eat, but food no longer tempted me as it does a person in health. I picked and minced over my meals, and the little I took neither tasted good nor did me any good after I had eaten it. Instead of warming, comforting and stimulating me, as it used to do, it gave me distress at the stomach, pain at the chest, and a singular feeling of tightness around the waist, as though a belt were buckled too snug around me."

"After a time the condition of my stomach seemed to grow worse. There was that sense of gnawing so often mentioned by others, and occasionally a feeling of faintness and sinking almost like the ground giving way under one's feet."

(Remark:—An eminent London physician, in one of his books, describes this sinking feeling as one of the most appalling and frightful that it is possible to experience. It is not the body but the mind that suffers. I, the present writer, have had two attacks of it, and pray to have no more. It is like unto the overshadowing of the Death Angel's wing, with the mind fully conscious of the situation. The cause is uric acid poison in the blood, one of the products of prolonged indigestion.)

"When this sinking feeling came on," continues the letter, "it weighed me down like a nightmare. Finally I got to be so weak I could only walk slowly and feebly. The doctor who prescribed for me said my complaint was dyspepsia, but his medicine had no perceptible effect."

"I continued this for eight years: not always the same, but now better and then worse. Yet in all that long time there was not a day when I could say I was well. No medicine or treatment seemed right for me, and I almost began to think I never should recover my former health."

"In March, 1892, Mother Siegel's Syrup was recommended to me as having done wonders in cases like mine, even when they were of long standing and everything else had failed. No harm to try it, we thought, and got a bottle from Mr. Grime, the chemist, in Bolton Road; and after taking it I felt great relief. My appetite quickly improved, and I could eat without pain. When I had taken two or three bottles more the bad symptoms had all gone, and I was as well as ever. My husband also took the medicine with the same good results. You may publish my letter and refer inquirers to me. (Signed) (Mrs.) Elizabeth Wilson, 5, Northcote Street, Bolton Road, Darwen, March 1st, 1895."

The lesson in this interesting narrative is too plain for us to miss it. Our old friend Crusoe was not able to launch his boat for the want of machinery. Similarly the doctor who attended Mrs. Wilson was not able to cure her because he did not possess the right remedy. His opinion as to her complaint was entirely correct. She was suffering from chronic dyspepsia, precisely as he told her. But alas! it is one thing to know what ought to be done and quite another to have the knowledge and means to do it.

Between these two things (over this wide gap) stands Mother Siegel's Syrup, just as between the two sides of the Thames stands London Bridge.

WHARF AND WAVE.

The Rio de Janeiro is two days late. The schooner Ada will sail for Hilo with a cargo of general merchandise Tuesday afternoon. She will take the Rawlins soap plant among her freight. The bark Iolani, which departed yesterday, is the thirteenth vessel that has gone around the Horn with sugar from Honolulu this year. Twelve went to New York and one to Boston.

The Hawaiian bark Iolani, McClure master, sailed for New York early yesterday afternoon with a cargo of 2084 tons of sugar. Captain McClure was accompanied by his wife. Pilot Macaulay took the Iolani out.

The German bark H. Hackfeld will sail for Laysan Island on Saturday for a load of guano for this port. Captain Barber will take along with him a lot of taxidermist's materials for the purpose of stuffing a lot of birds.

The Japanese steamer Mike-Mar, Young master, arrived yesterday morning and anchored in naval row. Following is the captain's report: Cleared from Yokohama on August 5; brought 260 Japanese immigrants and 7 steerage passengers. The Mike-Mar is consigned to Wm. G. Irwin & Co.
